TERMS

- 6 months waiting period (from time of first premium paid) and regularly paid every month. 24 months waiting period for suicide.
- Convert/crossover refers to a new member joining Celebration of Life Funeral Services immediately from another funeral services provider and has provided proof:
 - a) A list of dependents that were covered;
 - b) Proof of benefits (eg. coffin, tents, chairs, water, etc) in the form of policy document / brochure with fee and proof of paying that respective fee
- Celebration of Life Funeral Services will match the benefits of the previous funeral services provider should a death occur with the first 3 paid months on a regular basis of the 6 month waiting period. We don't cover airtime, grocery voucher/cash back, grave fee. It does not constitute a convert/crossover if a) and b) are both not provided. Where only a) is provided, a standard burial will apply (see below). After 3 months, it will be full cover.
- New business refers to a new member joining Celebration of Life Funeral Services without having been part of a previous funeral services provider and/or without proof of being a member of another funeral services provider. A full 6 month waiting period has to be served.
- Cash payout as per specified package should the client seek assistance of an alternative service provider.
- Children must be 21 years old on next birthday. Children over 21 years of age are covered as extended family members.
- Body removal and burials outside Gauteng (eg inter-provinces and neighbouring countries will incur additional charges) are charged R8.00 per kilometre and tollgates, and any other applicable fees etc
